D-MOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,
LUKE P. BLACKBURN,
of Jefferson County.
FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
JAMES E. CANTRELL, of Scott County.
FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
P. W. HARDIN,
of Mercer County.
FOR ADVISOR,
FAYETTE HERWITT,
of Herdine County.
FOR TREASURER,
JAMES W. TATE,
of Franklin County.
FOR SUPERINTENDENT PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
JOSEPH DESHA PICKEETT,
of Fayette County.
FOR REGISTER OF LAND OFFICE,
RALPH SHERIDAN,
of Nelson County.

COL. TICE, of Graves, declines the call to become a candidate for the State Senate in this District.

COL. JO SHERIFF, recently appointed as the Greenback candidate for the State Senate in this District, died at Mayfield, last week, of flux.

JUDGE A. R. BOONE declines to run for Representative of Graves, because he would antagonize political and professional friends already on the track.

DR. LUKE P. BLACKBURN, (who will then be Governor) has written to the Secretary of the Fulton Agricultural Society, promising to attend our Fall Fair, if his health will permit. The people of the entire county will give him a royal welcome and entertain him.

The Democrat says John Caldwell, a so-called Kansas emigrant agent, who promised to take darkies to the promised land for thirty cents a head, after spending a week in Bowling Green, skipped with sixteen dollars of the dopps' money, and left an unpaid board bill.

Courier Political Notes.

Nip and Tuck!

Who will be the State Senator?

Who will be the member of the Leg.

Slavery?

Plowing by Electricity.

At a recent meeting of the Paris Academy of Sciences, M. Treco gave an account of some experiments in plowing by electricity which he witnessed at sermone, in the marine Gramme machine, making 1,200 revolutions per minute, and driven by a steam-engine, was connected to a second Gramme at a distance of 340 yards, and caused the latter to revolve at the rate of 1,140 revolutions to the minute, the electricity produced by the first machine being thus converted into work. The second machine was connected to a third at a distance of 210 yards, and these two worked cables attached to a double plow, which plowed the land in a regular furrow.

KENTUCKY holds the first State election this year,—on the 4th day of August.

Vote the straight ticket through and through, but at any rate vote for Blackburn.

WATSON stock is booming. The Clinton Democrat and the Mayfield Leader have crossed swords. We wait impatiently for the first blood!

HENRY GEORGE stock for the State Senate appears to be booming. The Mayfield Leader is out square toed and flat footed for him, and gives pointed reasons why it endorses him.

TALK to your neighbor who is indifferent, and get him to go to the polls and vote for Blackburn. Each reader can get one more vote out, if he will try.

THE people should think and talk about the question of a new constitution or amending the present one, and should not forget that in order to carry it, it will be necessary to secure a majority of all the legal voters in the State.

DEMOCRATIC speakers are now on in nearly every county in Kentucky, but not one in the First District. Where the other Democratic champion and hero who, when a big fat fellow, is in sight, have done so much service for the party!

Put Up Or Shut Up.

[From the Courier Journal.]

The Cincinnati Gazette dare not attack, in an actionable form, that Dr. Luke P. Blackburn, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Kentucky, ever proposed to disseminate yellow fever through the Union armies and Northern cities. The Gazette is a sneaking sheet. It would patch its cowardice by indemnity, and make a virtue of a malevolence it ... not the courage to put in tangible shape.

B拉ger and Trimble.

We were not present to hear Judge Bicker's speech at Woodville, Saturday, but are informed that he stuck up to the highest expectations of his friends. Judge Trimble was present, and also addressed the crowd. He did not announce himself as a candidate, but left the people under the impression that he would run, if they wanted him to. We are also informed that the discussion between these two gentlemen was quite a warm one, and that it was slightly mixed with personalities. Both are men of ability, and the impression is that there will be a warmly contested election should Mr. Trimble enter the race.

It does not need that the defense of Judge Hargis has been greatly strengthened in the mind of the public by the publication of Hon. W. F. Bullock and others that the license of Judge Hargis is correct, and the statement in the Courier-Journal, of June 19.

A preacher in Georgia is the father of thirty two children, which beats any thing so far on record. But all my sisters are not so frank as this one of Georgia.—[Canton (O.) Repository.

What Congress Did Do.

The following are the bills of any importance passed by the House at the recent session which are now laws:

Making appropriations for legislative, executive and judicial expenses, for the support of the army, for the judicial expenses of the Government.

To provide for the exchange of subsidiary coins for lawful money of the United States under certain circumstances, and to make such coins a legal tender in all sums not exceeding $10.

Making appropriation for the construction of the fortifications at the mouth of the Mississippi.

To amend sections 1417, 1418, 1419, 1420 and 1424 of the Revised Statutes of the United States relating to the navy.

To provide for the appointment of a "Mississippi River Commission" for improvement of said river from the head of the passes near its mouth to its head waters.

Making additional appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department.

To authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to negotiate for the purchase of private land, or if necessary procure by condemnation, a site in a post office in the city of Baltimore, Md.; to prohibit quinine and sulphate of quinine on the free list.

To allow John Mervin and Frank Brown of Maryland, to import and land cattle for breeding purposes.

Personalities and Curse.

[From the New York Times.] If this country is ever again to be in the enjoyment of peace and prosperity, there must be a man who is regarded as a leader, and who shall draw over us peace. In a certain sense, however, must be regarded as a thoroughly reformed country will be impossible. For a gentleman at least, the relations sustained during the war will materially influence the formation of candidates both North and South. Not less certain is it that the proceedings of the Democratic party and the utterances of Southerners in Congress have revived questions which should now have been practically forgotten. As a consequence of the measures of this session sectionalism will once more appear in politics. How long it will remain there is a question dependent on events, especially on the events at the South. But the renewals of sectional issues as between the two parties does not constitute a just basis of renewal as between Senators and Representatives. One fairly seated in Congress, a man's right to be there is not open to partisanship. His antecedents are not his disqualification. His constituents did not object to them, and that is enough. Unless the line be drawn here, Congress may be rendered worse than a bad garden at any moment.

Mr. Gobert and the Speaker.

Mr. Gobert—The gentleman's colleague is present.

Mr. Hubbell—Yes, I am here.

Mr. Gobert—The gentleman's colleague is present.

Mr. Gobert—I did not see him.

Mr. Hubbell—I acknowledge the mistake he had made to Hon. Joseph C. S. Blackburn, my colleague, and did not say statements in my letter. Mr. Hubbell sought a formal introduction to me and explained how he committed the error of mistaking me for Mr. Robinson, Chairman of the republican Committee of Ohio, and had the conversation. Mr. Hubbell is now in his seat, has never denied and will not deny that such interview occurred as detailed in my letter, and this statement is not made for the purpose of annoying my former colleague by further notice.

Mr. Gobert—The gentleman will state it.

Mr. Van Voorhis—It is that we have had enough of this.
